

Joint L.A and San Diego Trip

El Prado at Mt. Laguna Campout June 15—17, 2023

Come join SAGA at our Spring outing to the El Prado Group Camp. This site is located at 5,500 feet in the Laguna Recreation area of the Cleveland National Forest. Situated east of San Diego, the Laguna Mountain range supports a forest of Jeffrey pines and black oaks. Just east of this range, the land falls away abruptly to the desert, providing spectacular contrasting views.

The campsite is surrounded by a canopy of trees, and is situated next to a large meadow area. Hiking is plentiful in the area, and two hikes are planned, a long one for the serious hikers and a shorter one for the casual hikers. The site features running water, tables and pit toilets and adjacent parking, and is accessible to trailers and campers.

SAGA's camping trips provide a chance to escape the fast pace of the city, and this trip offers beautiful vistas in a portion of Southern California unfamiliar to most non-native Angelinos. The trip will include all meals and beverages, beginning with a Friday evening light dinner, and concluding with a Sunday Brunch. The cost remains low: $98 members or guests. Full refund if you cancel by August 30, checks will be held until after August 30.

The Weekend:

Friday evening: The campsite is ours after 2 P.M. Have dinner on the way up, or bring something with you. We will have cocktails, a light meal and a raging campfire waiting for you.

Saturday: Hot coffee and breakfast will be provided. Afterward, you can partake in Day hikes and/or just relax. We'll also set out a lunch, with beer and soda, suitable for packing on a hike or eating later in camp. Late afternoon, the men are usually in the shower freshening up. The evening starts with a festive cocktail party, followed by a full dinner. After dessert, join the group around the campfire, or check out the moonlight and stars and...

Sunday: Coffee and juice will be available for early risers. During the morning, relax and enjoy nature. Around 9:30 a Brunch will be served.

What to Take:

Campsites have running water, pit toilets, tables and benches and many tent sites. SAGA provides a temporary Shower stall on Saturday afternoon. The campsite is spacious, and since it is a group site, it is fairly private.

Necessities: Sleeping bag, coffee mug, foam pad or air mattress (or travel trailer, RV, etc.); towels, comfortable waking shoes, walkers, warm clothing, water bottle or canteen for hiking, flashlight and poncho or rain gear.

Desirable: tent, air mattress, pillow, folding chair, extra shoes and clothing, day pack, insect repellent, hat and camera. Sleeping bags and tents can be rented at some sporting goods stores.

Driving Directions to the camp and a list of campers and their assignments will be e-mailed to all participants just prior to the trip, around September 7, 2023

RELEASE

I (we), the persons named above, hereby request from the SAGA SKI CLUB, a nonprofit California corporation, hereafter called SAGA, to participate in a recreational trip as stated above. I understand that SAGA has been organized to provide its members, prospective members and guests of members or prospective members, with the opportunity to enjoy various recreational trips as a group so as to save expense for transportation, lodging and related matters. In consideration of the permission granted to me to participate in such group activity, I hereby release SAGA, its officers, members, prospective members and other SAGA participants in the trip referred to in this participation request from any claims arising out of said trip and agree to refrain from making any claims or commencing any lawsuit against SAGA, its members, prospective members, officers or other SAGA trip participants in connection with said trip. My release as stated above includes injuries to my person and damages to my property.

Without limiting the general nature of the above release, I recognize that outdoor sporting activities involve dangerous and possibly hazardous risks, and I assume such risks voluntarily in exchange for the social and economic benefits that I will gain from the group activity. Furthermore, I understand that SAGA does not provide general liability, accident or theft insurance of any nature for its members or guests.

Furthermore, I agree to follow the then current CDC recommended safe practices to protect myself and others from the current corona virus pandemic. SAGA strongly recommends you get vaccinated prior to the trip, but even if vaccinated will a mask when serving food and when close to other campers, and follow other safety protocols requested by the trip leader.

I agree to the above and acknowledge that I have read and understand the SAGA event policy.
